

BOARD POLICY - Executive Limitation

1 The OPTIONS Family of Services, Inc., Board of Directors recognizes that

1.1 When a person receiving services or an employee has a grievance or issue with an OPTIONS' policy, house rule, another person served or employee, or has an issue regarding the operation of services, the following procedures will guarantee the rights of the person with a grievance. The following procedures will be followed, to ensure all grievances will be resolved as expeditiously and as simply as possible. In all measures described below, the persons filing the grievance has a right to receive verbal and/or written documentation of any discussion regarding the grievance.

Any person filing a grievance has the right to:

1.1.1 Discuss the problem with the immediate supervisor. If the problem is not resolved within a week of the discussion, then:

1.1.2 Discuss the problem with the department manager. If the problem is not resolved within a week of the discussion, then:

1.1.3 Discuss the problem with the Chief Operating Officer (COO). If the matter is not resolved within a week of the discussion, then:

1.1.4 Write a formal grievance/complaint letter addressed to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). The CEO is responsible for responding, in writing, within 20 working days of the receipt of such a letter and will include an outline of the action to be taken. If the matter is not resolved, then:

1.1.5 Write a formal grievance/complaint letter addressed to one or more members of the OPTIONS' Board of Director's. The letter should include any actions that are believed to resolve the problem. Any OPTIONS board member in receipt of a such a letter may, at their discretion, convene a special board of directors meeting within 20 days of receipt of the letter to address the grievance/complaint. The board of directors as a whole will then be responsible for responding, in writing, to the person or persons filing the complaint. This written response will be sent to the author of the grievance/complaint within 10 days of the specially convened board meeting, and will outline any and all board action taken in the matter. If a board member(s) who receives the letter, decides that no action is necessary, the board member(s) will respond to the author of the letter, in writing, within 20 days of receipt of the letter, outlining the
