

Employee of the Month

November 2017 Nicole Crowley

Nicole started off as a CSS and then was promoted to an SL Supervisor. She thrived and excelled as a Supervisor, but realized that her true calling was to work more hands on with the people she served. Nic works with many people of all different ages, abilities, and learning styles and brings patience and empathy to a variety of settings to ensure each person feels valued and secure. Nic is always engaged with the people she works with and is consistently going the extra distance to make sure their needs are met. Each individual Nic works with has met or surpassed most of their set goals. She connects with each person and inspires them to put forth their best effort. She is thoughtful, reliable, hardworking and warm. Her enthusiasm and charisma are contagious. It is not hard to see why she has such a positive impact on the lives she touches.
